

PTFF-2 – “Transport of Ducati MOTO GP Racing Team”

---

The Sixth Round of the 2012 Moto (Motorcycle) GP Championship will be held at the Silverstone Circuit in the UK on 17th June 2012. Platinum Airways is contracted to transport machines, equipment and spares from the Catalunya Circuit – Barcelona, host of the 5th Round, to the UK. In addition, machines and spares are required to be transported from the Ducati Racing Team HQ at Bologna, Italy to the UK.

Suggested Aircraft:

Boeing 757-200PF/SF or appropriate aircraft

Flight Schedule:

1. Load machines (4) plus equipment and spares at El Prat, Barcelona (LEBL) and fly to East Midlands Airport (EGNX), UK. (Machines will remain at Silverstone until next round at Assen, Netherlands) – 709 nm.
2. Load machines (2) plus equipment and spares at Borgo Panigale, Bologna (LIPE) and fly to East Midlands Airport (EGNX) – 729nm.
3. Return machines (2) and spares to Ducati HQ at Bologna – 729nm.

NOTAMS:

GP motorcycles are required to have a minimum weight of 157Kg (345lbs) for the 2012 season.

Total flight distance 2,167 nm.

Please enter in PIREP Comments PTFF-2-1/2.