

PTFF-8 – “Transport of F1 2012 McLaren GP Racing Team”

The European Grand Prix, fifth Round of the 2012 Formula 1 GP Championship, will be held at the Circuit Urbano Valencia, in Spain on 22nd June 2012. Platinum Airways is contracted to transport F1 vehicles (4), equipment and spares from the Montreal Circuit – Canada, host of the 4th Round, to Spain. In addition, F1 vehicles (2) and spares are required to be transported from the McLaren Team HQ at Woking, UK to Spain.

Suggested Aircraft:

Boeing 757F or appropriate aircraft

Flight Schedule:

1. Load F1 vehicles (4) plus equipment and spares at Montreal Intl (CYUL) and fly to Manises-Valencia (LEVC). F1 vehicles will remain in Spain after the race, until the 6th round at Silverstone, UK – 3,148nm.
2. Load spare F1 vehicles (2) plus equipment and spares at Heathrow, London (EGLL) and fly to Valencia (LEVC) - 719nm.
3. Return spare F1 vehicles (2) and spares to McLaren HQ at Heathrow (EGLL) – 719nm.

NOTAMS:

Please enter in PIREP Comments, eg, PTFF-8-1/3.

Total flight distance 4,586nm.