FF-171 – “Ameriflight”

Established in 1968, Ameriflight is the largest regional air-carrier in the world. The airline serves major financial institutions, medical laboratories and US overnight couriers. The majority of its operations are feeder services for UPS, FedEx and DHL; distributing cargo from major hubs to smaller communities unable to accept larger aircraft, returning cargo to hubs. The airline transports priority financial documents, medical samples and has permission to transport radioactive materials.
